

MEDICINE SING

NAKI IL'JOONI - HOPI FEBRUARY 2007

Photography by Lynda Yracébûrû, Where Spirit Lives

This e-book features wonderful photography and narration that evoke the link between humans and Esonkñhsendehí... the sacred Changing Mother earth with respect to belief, determination, and the fulfillment of ancient prophecy unfolding, while honoring the wisdom and courage of the Elders who blessed this work. Full of passion, vision and heartfelt messages, this book brings to light the wisdom of Hopi, Apache, Inka, Hawaii, and all indigenous philosophies now relevant to our experiences. This is Humanity's Second Initiation.

The Ruins of Tuzigoot

For thousands of years, the Verde Valley has been a human melting pot. Hunters and gatherers came first, searching for wild game and grasses. Traders followed, digging salt and minerals, and then settlers farming the fertile bottomlands.

A tribe of southern Sinagua built their masonry homes on this ridge about AD 1000 and established a thriving agricultural community. Inexplicably, they left in the early 1400s, more than a hundred years before the first Europeans rode into the valley.

A circular 1/4-mile trail winds up and through the remains of the Tuzigoot pueblo. Please stay off the walls and on the walkway. Help us preserve these remnants of an earlier civilization.

Directional Energy Flows – Symbols of Compassion, Cooperation and Conception on circumference and spokes – Later spirals with spokes representing the Eight Intin diyi... Paths of Power – Comparison of Self Truth with the Truth as it is known – Further self discovery – Higher vibrational energies of the Whole – Higher vibrational energies on the Individual – Second Spiral Initiations – Path of Transition, Living in the Way of the Ancestors – All variants of the wheel in harmony with teachings of Tlish Diyan.

Another aspect of evolution involved in reaching a place of Being is given in a passage of Mokesh, the golden eyed snake, the son of Kato'ya and Kalina', parents of the Tlish Diyan.

“A Warrior of Light assesses the Shadow of Fear for the illusion contained within the Shadow. He places himself strategically; no challenge is ever a surprise. Integrity, generosity, and respect are his principles.

“Love is the defense. Therefore, a Warrior of Light heals all dysfunction contained within. He knows the Shadow of Fear has hundreds of tricks to lure a person into the confusion. He seeks to eliminate as many of his own issues as possible. In dancing with the Shadow of Fear, he calls upon two aspects: wisdom and truth – these are his strategy and offense. Yet there will always be challenges as long as there is evolution. Even for a Warrior of Light there will always be healing on new and unseen planes of existence. Only the Way of the Dreamer eliminates all dysfunction.”

According to the Tlish Diyan we do not think as a cerebral function only, but also a cosmic function. When we think we create a current of thought. We are continuously creating currents of thought, and when we, individually emit these wave lengths, reach the realm of manifestation.

We perfect our nervous systems, and create currents of thought which, like electricity, like magnetism, like light, heat, are a form of cosmic energy, which are vitally real.

In this higher degree in our evolution, our currents of thoughts are not so much enmeshed in things of fear, nor involved in judgment and concerned with external affirmation of self, our thoughts are able to rise above polarity, where we create higher vibrational currents of thought which are strong enough to harmonize terrestrial gravity.

Terrestrial gravity has an effect on everything. We all know that a stone thrown up in the air will fall down, illustrating the effect of gravity as we believe it to be. But there is also a kind of gravity to which there is access by altering thought perception – and these thoughts rise above this sphere.

In measuring our currents of thought, they are growing ever stronger – through the laws of affinity, our currents of thoughts establish unity with other higher vibrational thoughts. We are a family of higher vibrational currents of thought.

And through unity and love we are able to establish contact with All That Is, which is the Unity of all energy in motion, known and unknown. This energy exists, as the light coming from our individual eternal flames, providing its own existence and essence outside its manifestation. All That Is – Bidaa – permanent, perpetual and eternal – no beginning, no ending.

There is a very beautiful Tlish Diyan legend. Child of Water, one of the Hero Twins of Creation², was in meditation in what is now Canyon de Chelly. Many months and years had passed – for then time was not existent.

Came wind, came rains, the winds blew earth upon his body, little seeds fell there and the grass began to grow. There came two swallows who built a nest upon his shoulder. The swallows returned every year to their nest, but one spring they did not return. Then in the eyes of Child of Water, the first healer, one who had traveled the Star Path and returned, appeared tears, for he missed the swallows. And Child of Water discovered that he was not balanced without his twin; there was a rhythm in the heart and they worked to help maintain the balance of Earth Human resonance axis alignment.

This path of the Snake shows how we can tap ever higher forces of conscious memory, how we are setting ourselves free from illusion in which we imagine we are separate in universal life.

Tlish Diyan shows us how to extinguish the ember of fear's smoldering shadow and how to open up inexhaustable new sources of constantly renewed and created energies that lead us into ever more defined self vision. So we see that there is a purpose, a Path of Beauty; we possess the energy of healing; we know how to effect unity with peace; with the vibration of the Power of One.

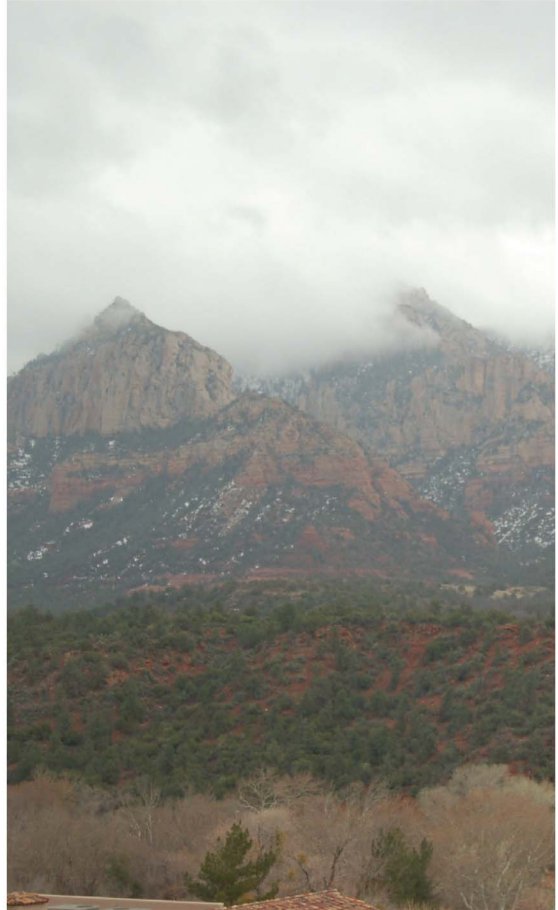

Everything is in the flame, in the Eternal HeartFire, the Flame of Compassion, the Flame of Cooperation and Tolerance. We transform in this HeartFire. This most freeing fire. So does the Medicine Sing bring. All thoughts return to the source of Creation. It is a path that must be walked to experience.

A simple, natural life philosophy. Inner intensive peace, sharing with those that ask, and always an increasingly higher connection of family, a higher unity with the eternal All That Is, leading to balance and to progressive disappearance of the illusion which fear feeds.

There are various lessons in this path of self-discovery.
One who has connection is called by essence. One who claims sacred power we honor. Be an example of self-truth.

What happens, then? By our nervous systems, we connect and unify thought. We experience, assimilate, becoming more and more in harmony with All Our Relations, and finally, we harmonize with the sphere of gravitation around Changing Mother, we unite and see.

We are devoted children, whispering into the ear of our inner selves, we live in the present. We choose to. Gentle reminders often come. We step into life today. It is a habit we never want to break. We believe in the sacredness of our existence, and say to the Star Nations, We listen to the teachings and honor the evolution of our lives!

The Ancients are the real beacons of light on our path, they bless us. We are grateful for the experiences that give our tapestry its beauty. Today we delight in telling stories of ancient wisdom. We are poets reciting the songs of Spirit that others might hear.

We are an oasis in reality, ready to quench the thirst of any Seeker of the Heart. In this day that stands before us, we are certain that we have many chances for growth, for kindness to others, for developing confidence within us. We are thoughtful in our actions. They are special and will be repeated no more. Evolution is not merely healing the past; it is manifesting the future.

Dena and Jim Riley

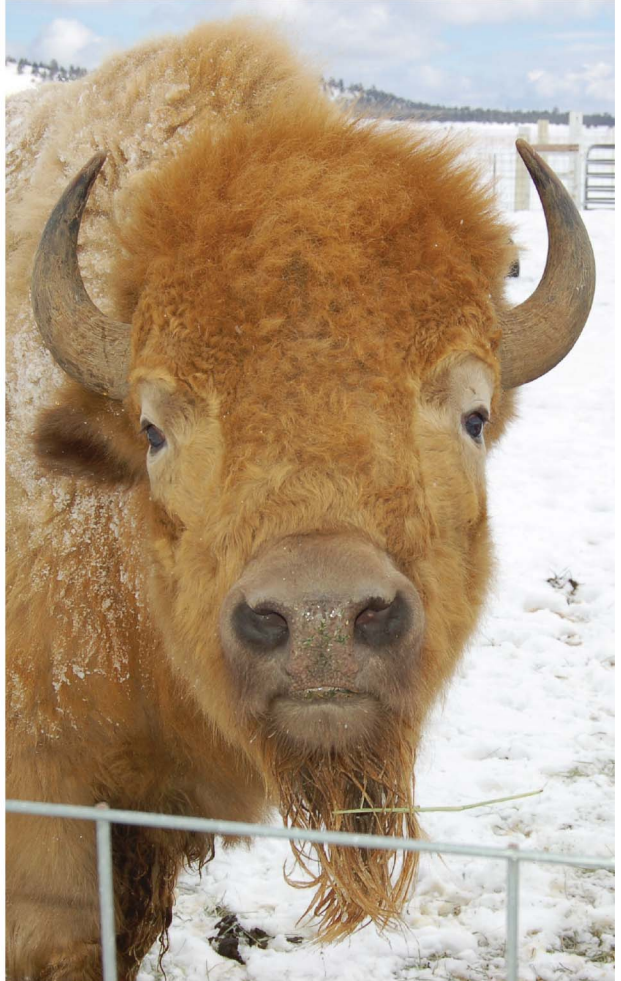

We are Sacred Law, we chose healing. We said, We can help it. We celebrate that we take responsibility for our lives today. Our awakening is fed by Grandfather Sun's light and the dawn is our destiny...

We are the breath of immortality. Spirit has our attention today, and directs our energies, making the most of our special talents.
We are awake.

Dreams are the snow of the earth; each flake a hope made manifest in light and truth, nurturing the seeds to grow, protecting them and fulfilling prophecy.

We laugh with the world and heal. The experiences offered today, in the 24 hours ahead, are significant because they are unique. We cherish them for the addition they make to our total being. The 7 Sisters are with us, veiled in the cloak of future manifestation, dance in ancient garb among us. May we see the gift they bring!

We are peace. We look to this day. Everyday is a new beginning. The 7 Sisters are no strangers to us in this life, we sing their praises, for they uphold the Light of Truth, as we dance the sacred HeartFlame.

Peace is in the eyes of infants, nursing at the breast of our great and sacred Mother...

Esonkñhsendehí... We are grateful for our growth toward wholeness and the opportunities along the way. They bring us into harmony with the Universal Plan for our lives. Reason has revealed itself to us, we hark to what she says, and we are healed.

Our Guides are here among us. They leave their signatures in sound, fragrance, in experiences that are wondrous and others that sometimes seem anxious. Silence is our time and music is their playground.

When our Guides speak wind stands still, the colors vibrate and every moment becomes an opportunity to listen. With all the skepticism today, it's a wonder we can hear anything at all. Fortunately, we do have earthly disciplines that speak universal languages allowing their existence to be translated and manifested in our own reality.

When we acknowledge this we begin to walk... and when the walk assumes it's own stride of grace... the struggle diminishes and we come to understand the significance of maintaining integrity with regards to these great messengers of truth.

By virtue of their persistence we are granted the experience of acceptance. Let us express our gratitude to our Guides now for reminding us that we are a part of Spirit by gracing our thoughts with gentle breezes, sweet music and making miracles...

This pilgrimage is an essence. It serves to invoke, evoke and provoke goodness. It's the layer of understanding that permits us to forgive and be kind. It's the element that grants us permission to be idealistic; to believe; and to move beyond adversity. We advise pilgrims to relax and allow this journey to live in and all around us. What comes to you will stand vigil over every generation to come...

Whatever is going on in your life... however you see the state of the world or any part of it, let it drift away for now. See with your inner eyes, the eyes of the heart. All is still and serene. Allow the focus of your attention to move to the point of balance. Begin to breathe from that one point, a point of warm light. Breathe out any disturbance. See... feel the point of light as your body becomes relaxed completely.

Now envision the point of light at your center becoming brighter... brighter... until it becomes a star... a brilliant blue-white star. Allow whatever sensations accompany this vision to be there. Visualize the starlight expanding to fill your body. With the next breath your starlight expands and surrounds you. Breathe. Starlight expands. Breathe in the essence from the star... breathe out to shine its light on the land... Breathe... this cycle draws light in... and out to shed illumination upon the world. Breathe. The luminous light of your blue-white star remains warm at center as it expands to shine softly over all.

A bubble of radiant starlight surrounding the Changing Mother... you are sending it. You can send it further... to join the 7 Sisters... the thousands of stars in the Universe. Your star is now the center of the Universe, filling it with your light energy. Experience that.

Now become aware of your starlight moving inward on each circle of breath. Follow the circles within circles as you breath in more light energy. Pay attention to each cycle of breath until the light energy is once more focused in the one point at your center. Experience that...

Retaining awareness of that point of lovely light, put the book down and stand up and move. Move in slow motion... conscious of the point of light. Touch your heart gently... aware. Slowly raise your hands to the sky... aware. Now sit down. Gently return to everyday consciousness with a pulse of light still connecting you to your star... at center.

Starlight has come to us on this day. Our Guides will dance with us the lessons of manifestation. Our Guides encourage us now to speak the light within ourselves and broadcast the essence of who we are upon the ethers of time.

We manifest our essence through the power of words and images in this moment of time. We come spirit to spirit. Please finish this sentence. Godiyanna Pinu... In this beginning, I am...

Topaz blue light between sky and rain clouds... from Black Coyote.

Many Parrots, Guardian of time, doorway to the past. Narrow blue-gray light. Very distant. Beautiful and loving, but definitely from the past...

from Black Coyote.

Spirit's Messenger, White Tail the Eagle, light orbs coming from Four Directions. Merging into hub in the middle. Blending softly in pearl essence... from Black Coyote.

Tracker, All Seeing Ones, light within, broadcast essence throughout the universe... from Black Coyote

Feathered Cape, Grandmother of the East, Medicine Bowl of Eternity blanketed in stars. Feels out there. Electrical flow... from Black Coyote.

Rock Song, All Our Relations, black background with light blue track coming from southwest to northeast with light orbs traveling within it...
from Black Coyote

Our Guides understand and are committed to escorting us throughout eternity. This pilgrimage is about behavior. It comes from a place of spirit and love manifesting itself as a conviction of the heart and essentially materializing as our Sacred Purpose.

There is no judgment as we send starlight in healing to those in need... no preconceived idea of what “ought” to happen for Our Relations. As we speak our words of healing, let us breathe our starlight up from center, let it radiate to all, glowing from our third eye, now we send pure healing, love energy.

This pilgrimage conveys the message our Guides leave with us – messages of the heart and invitations of the soul.
Dance is the way our Guides join together with us. It energizes and recharges our sacredness.
It keeps us free and pure;
like bathing
under a waterfall.

Yusn and Esonkñhsendehí, our most Sacred Parents, in this moment we are like the summit, we can see and hear others – and we are like the cave, birthing dreams and new visions of hope, prosperity and love.

We are the seeds dropped by your hand into the field, breaking through our pods and waving our sapling leaves before the face of Grandfather Sun.

We shall grow into mighty trees, our roots in the heart of you, our Sacred Mother, Esonkñhsendehí, and our branches high in celebration of you, our Sacred Father, Yusun.

The Path of the Tlish Diyan comes from Yusn. Changing Mother is within. May these gathered to participate in this initiation never forget this that binds All Our Relations together as One. On this morning, they have come home to tradition. When they return home they will dance the Sacred Spiral as All That Is lights their way. This we hold sacred.

These words are tied in one with the great mountains, with the great rocks, with the great trees. In one with the sacred Changing Mother. In one with the Giver of All Life's heart.

We help those that are beginning the Path of Beauty with Love's Spiritual power. And the day and the night, all gathered to see, Oneness with All Our Relations. We are Tlish Diyan... Snake Clan. We walk the Path of Beauty.

A long time ago, the Ancestors went out on quests for knowledge to guide All Our Relations through this life. They were supernatural beings... the HolyOnes... who showed them visions, and taught them the importance of ceremony, upon sheets of stone and sky.

The HolyOnes told them of Creation. The ceremonies shown by the HolyOnes were Rites of Passage that now line our path as we walk our sacred journey. They comprise our Diyini Hedowachee... our EarthRenewal Holyway Festivals of Joy... a time and space where Spirit and Humans join.

More than just a symbolic ritual, this pilgrimage taps an actual energy shift created by the HolyOnes, and maps out the sacred journey we now begin. This, then, is a vortex for aligning the powers of the Sacred Parents with our own, and is a vital part of Tlish Diyan work.

This is an event that is but a fleeting moment, and yet the effects, of which, will be felt for many days after. It's a ritual function of self-fulfilling prophecy.

Our friends of Spirit of earth and sky... you who are seldom seen – we welcome you. And Yusn, great Giver of All Life, we ask that you help us see beyond.

Nakía, Rainbow Serpent of Prophecy, with the waters of our human emotions open our eyes to where and when and help us see beyond.

Eo'to'to... Grandmother Bear, with the soil of the sacred Changing Mother open our eyes to where and when, and help us see beyond.
Tuma... Thunderhoof Buffalo, with the Winds of Change and sacred Breath of Life open our eyes to where and when and help us see beyond.
Itzá... White Tail Eagle, with the fire of passionate creation open our eyes to where and when, and help us all, Children of the Universe, to see beyond.

Esonkñhsendehí... sacred Changing Mother, magic and peace are upon us this day, as we gather here with All Our Relations to delve into that which lies beyond. We ask that you make strong and keep the inner eyes of these initiate pilgrims as they search for their way, and let only influences of love enter this Circle of Family.

This ceremony is nakí il'jooní... the second initiation... the Medicine Sing. And through it we are blessed. Nohwizá'yé... Ancestors, be with us, we ask. We thank all that joined with us... those whom we could see, and those who are not of this world. Ukehí Yusn, we thank you Giver of All Life. Ukehí Esonkñhsendehí... we thank you Changing Mother. Ukehí Grandfather Martin!

Masawistwa... WhiteWing Dragon, no one can trap our souls, for now we have no fear of death. We begin to see beyond the Void and look responsibly at how we live. The initiation of Masawistwa propels us into the raw energy of Creation. Fears hidden previously by denial arise to be healed within the next few months. Spirit Guides and Higher Selves begin the merging with our own souls as we begin to dance the crack between universal realities. Widening our spectrum of vision. The time is Now to do EarthRenewal and alignment, pray, teach, counsel and comfort. We confront our fear and discover our new-old abilities.

hiyaa gozhoo dolee... may peace flow...
